The Election.

On Monday the thirteenth inst., the Electors of Maine have an important duty to perform in the election of the State and county officers. It is very desirable that every voter should cast his ballot for the man he most approves as the representative of the political principles he entertains. No true patriot can neglect to vote. A full vote is especially needed this year, in order to fix with the people the measure and the policy which Maine shall pursue. A single vote may be sufficient to turn the scale and that vote should be deposited. Great events have often been determined by a single vote. Let this be the fully borne in mind and let every man be seen to vote.

The Whigs of Maine have much to encourage them in this contest. They have a candidate for Governor, Hon. Wm. G. Crosby, most eminently fitted for the discharge of the duties of that office. He is a man above reproach; a man of positive and acknowledged character and merit; a temperate, consistent, enlightened and honorable citizen. In his hands the great interests of the State and of the people are perfectly secure. It should be the delight of every Whig to give him a warm, hearty and enthusiastic support, for in him, that can contribute an able and faithful citizen, a good and virtuous and patriotic citizen, he has no equal and no superior. He is a man of large caliber of heart and head, and in him the Whig will find, should he be elected, the man to be and to serve to be one of the most accomplished and efficient public officers that has ever occupied the gubernatorial chair of Maine.

In the Congressional contest, the Whig candidate, Hon. Isaac Washburn, Jr., is deservedly the most popular and firmest that has ever been brought forward as a candidate. He has discharged his duties most ably and completely and brought home honors upon his State. His fine talents and varied learning and untiring industry, and deep sympathy with the people, his eloquence and clearness, have given him a position and an influence in Congress which few men ever attain in a long series of years, but which he has acquired during a single term of two years' service. The Whigs have unanimously nominated him with great measure, and the Free Soil Convention have appropriately abstained from seeking a nomination for the purpose of not interfering with any endorsement to his election, but with the intention and purpose that their votes should be given to him.

If the candidates generally composing the senatorial from this county it is unnecessary to say more than that they are men of ability, probity and honest intentions who sympathize most fully with the Whigs and with the people and that they will receive the hearty endorsement of the Whigs and the Free Soil Party and their election seems to be placed beyond a doubt.

The list of county officers is unexceptionable and will secure a large vote, and we cannot doubt of the election of the entire ticket.

The issues before the people are well understood and every man sees the importance of securing a majority of Whigs in the next Legislature of the State. This is the grand rallying point and which must not be lost sight of for a moment. This is to be the point of effort and no man can be excused for forgetting this result. Maine feels of in a glorious issue of correct principles and this issue is likely to be decided by the character and complexion of the Legislature to be chosen on the 13th inst.

To many of the readers of our Weekly, the Bangor Courier, this is the last opportunity we shall have to address a word before the election. To all such we say that the political issues are bright. They are not to be belied upon, nor are they to be forgotten. But interest themselves personally in the cause of the country, of correct principles, of the promotion of virtue and the success of the Whig nominations. If this duty is faithfully discharged it can hardly fail to secure a Whig Legislature. This will give a Whig United States Senator. The prospect is very good also for the election of three or four Whig members of Congress.

There is a strong reason then for action for vigilance, for earnest effort. Let no neighbor remain at home whose vote may help the cause. Attend to those who are aged and infirm, and help them to the polls. Stir up the indolent. Let the strong assist the weak. Make every home work in the cause in conveying distant and feeble voters to the place of voting.

Do not be deceived by "fast cards" or by false reports by pretended leaders or any of the traps of desperate men in a desperate cause. The names of candidates may be found in this paper. Take the paper with you to the polls and compare the votes cast for you. Voters will surely come if it be prudently and fully sought.

The Hon. Henry Bradley, an old and influential politician of the Liberty Party school, and a few years since the candidate of that party for the office of Governor of New York, has come out in favor of the election of Gen. Scott as President. He does not consider the Whigs to be responsible for the platform adopted at Baltimore. He thinks that Gen. Scott would give the country an able and capable administration of the government. In the course of his letter he says: "Do the Whig party and its nominee stand behind the country as an avowed party?" I answer, I do not stand as a pro-slavery party. If Gen. Pierce should be elected, both the South and the North will regard it as a slavery triumph, and the government will be administered, and its patronage dispensed accordingly. If Gen. Scott should succeed, it will not be to unduly triumph, but it will be for a long time a defeat of political slavery, and the government will be administered and its patronage dispensed nationally.

In Scott's Campaign. The Pittsburg Daily Union asks the question and says: "Gen. Scott fought at the battle of Gettysburg, and he was borne to a place of safety where he remained a considerable length of time. Will the fact disqualify him for being President in the election of patriots which will be held on the 13th inst.?" Major Peck, in his letter in the House, has just charged cowardice upon the old hero—but let the issue go and let him live as fast as he pleases. (This article is from the Pittsburg Daily Union.)

Gen. Scott's courage, so long, as his battle-field is not questioned from the face of the earth, will only excite popular indignation everywhere against his authors, and the party with which they are identified.

Retires or Not? In the heyday of the Native American party, two dally warriors were Lewis C. Levin and Peter Skeel Smith, both of Philadelphia. Levin was elected to Congress, and Smith tried to be Gen. Taylor's Colleague for the party of Philadelphia, but failed. Now Levin is a great Whig man, and is running as a Native candidate for Congress in his own District, while Smith still the hoarse, frank, man of good life, Pierce and King outlight.

It is odd, if Gen. Scott is any part of a Native, that the Native leaders should be smugly his bitter enemies.

In Rockport a few mornings since, a fisherman named David, took two hundred barrels of mackerel, worth fifteen hundred dollars, in one night, and in one haul. These were all No. 1 mackerel, and of an unusually excellent order. This is believed to be the largest haul ever made in the vicinity. The water, so far as could be discerned, was alive with the fish.

The Whigs of Lower New York, are making preparations to celebrate the 4th of the coming month, the anniversary of the entrance of the American army into Gen. Scott's city of Mexico, by a grand whig gathering.

The Eastern States.

The September number of this highly interesting Magazine has been received from the publisher, David Briggs. The original articles in this number are a continuation of Abbott's "Memoirs of the Holy Land," and "Notes from the Barbary States." These are handsomely illustrated. The number also contains the usual variety of miscellaneous reading, monthly record, etc. Copies may be obtained at Dugbes's store.
